

FCC
Oct 16, 2004

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcast Group airing essentially a political ad ["Stolen Honor"] that is intended to influence the 2004 US general election. If this is allowed on our public airways Sinclair should be required to air equivalent broadcasts of the opposing view in similar time slots before the election.

This is one example of a type of media consolidation that can be used to undermine our election process and subvert democracy as we have known it.

Respectfully Submitted,

Richard Kaufman